A Note from Kristian

This season's color pallet was inspired by gorgeous desert sunsets. Everyday, each sunrise and sunset is uniquely different, not one is identical. I truly believe God is an artist. This is the time when God has creative freedom and paints the sky. Sunsets in the desert are brilliant and full with color. The beginning of the sunset starts with the mustard yellows, then goes to orange, rust, magenta, aqua, leading to a navy night sky. The transition of color is symbolic and represents growth.

My designs are always influenced by the silhouettes of the 70s and 90s. For the Fall 2020 collection, my muses are Cleopatra Jones and Foxy Brown. They are true badasses! These women embody strength, power, and you instinctively know they are not the ones to mess with. Yet, at the same time, they are feminine, sexy, and beautiful! This is the Kristian Lorén woman
